

Promoting civilizational dialogue between the South and the North of the Mediterranean

Charles-Ferdinand Nothomb

President of the South-North Mediterranean Dialogue Foundation

What we want to achieve

- Civilizational dialogue
- Between the South and the North of the Mediterranean
- In a long-term perspective
- On an equal footing
- For a shared vision of the future

What we have done so far

With whom?

- Bibliotheca Alexandrina
- International European Movement
- Global Forum on Agricultural Research
- European Investment Bank
- European Union
- ISESCO
- Regional and National Specialized NGOs

What we have done so far

- Demonstrate that we have to learn from each other
- Partnering with the European Union to balance its cooperation priorities to the rural areas
- Highlighting the complementarity of the effort towards agriculture and other rural activity factors
- Highlight the role of local self-government in less densely populated areas
- Differentiate problems, priorities and solutions between the Southern and Eastern sides of the Mediterranean

What we want to achieve through GCARD3

- To integrate our Mediterranean action in global and regional politics
- To balance, through impacting global policy, a vision of the future of rural development and the future of urban development
- To position the future of each region in the global environment
- To think the global environment through its geographical diversity

Who could we have as partners

- Agricultural organizations of producers (farmers) and research
- Local facilitators of development and public action
- Governments seeking support for balanced development
- Private investors
